	God grants the right of the uncompromising righteous to rebel against an invading wicked authority	2Ki 18:17 // Isa 36:2 2Ki 18:7b, 2Ch 32:2-8
	Sennacherib king of Assyria mocks God as being any other impotent god against him	Isa 36:3-20 // 2Ki 18:18-35 // (2Ch 32:9-10,12-13, 18, 15, 11, 14), 2Ch 32:16-17,19 Isa 36:21-22 // 2Ki 18:36-37
	Preview - Hezekiah and Isaiah cry out to God	Isa 37:1 //2Ki 19:1 // 2Ch 32:20
	Hezekiah sends messengers to Isaiah regarding Assyria's threats	2Ki 19:2-5 // Isa 37:2-5 Identical Wording
	Isaiah responds that the Lord will scare Sennacherib away to be killed in his own land	2Ki 19:6-7 // Isa 37:6-7 Identical Wording
	A Maskil of the sons of Korah	Psalm 44
	A rerouted Sennacherib has his messenger Rabshakeh deliver another threatening letter to Hezekiah	2Ki 19:8-13 // Isa 37:8-13 Identical Wording
	Hezekiah cries out to the Lord	2Ki 19:14-19 // Isa 37:14-20 Identical Wording
	A Psalm of Asaph	Psalm 73
	A Psalm of Asaph, a Song	Psalm 75
	A Psalm of Asaph, a Song	Psalm 76
	Isaiah sends an encouraging message to Hezekiah saying the Lord is well aware of Sennacherib's arrogance which will be met with severe judgment	2Ki 19:20-34 // Isa 37:21-35 Nearly identical wording
	Sennacherib and Assyria to be punished directly by God	Isa 30:27-33, 31:8-9
	Woe to Assyria	Isa 10:5-11,28-32,24-26,12-16
	185,000 in the camp of the Assyrians are killed by the angel of the Lord and Sennacherib is killed by his own children at home	2Ki 19:35-37 // 2Ch 32:21 // Isa 37:36-38 Identical wording between 2 kings and Isaiah
	Commentary from Josephus	Josephus, Antiquities of the Jews, Book 10, Chapter 1, Paragraph 5
	The nations hear of the Lord delivering Hezekiah from Assyria	2Ch 32:22-23
	Hezekiah becomes mortally ill but the Lord extends his life fifteen years	Isa 38:1a // 2Ki 20:1a // 2Ch 32:24a (Sidenote) 2Ki 20:1b-6 // Isa 38:1b-6
	The shadow on the stairway of Ahaz goes backwards ten steps	2Ki 20:7-11 // (Isa 38:21-22, (38:7//2Ch 32:24b), 38:8)
	A writing of Hezekiah king of Judah, after his illness and recovery:	Isa 38:9-20